

Brixham Future CIC Confidentiality Policy

General principles

These general principles apply to all associated, employed or volunteer in Brixham Future CIC . We recognise that colleagues (Directors , employees, volunteers, seconded and students) gain information about individuals and organisations during the course of their work or activities. In most cases such information will not be stated as confidential and colleagues may have to exercise common sense and discretion in identifying whether information is expected to be confidential.

This policy aims to give guidance but if in doubt, seek advice from line management. Colleagues are able to share information with their line manager in order to discuss issues and seek advice. Colleagues will avoid exchanging personal information or comments about individuals with whom they have a professional relationship. Talking about the private life of a colleague is to be avoided at all times, unless the colleague in question has instigated the conversation.

Colleagues will avoid talking about organisations or individuals in social settings. Colleagues will not disclose to anyone, other than their line manager, any information considered sensitive, personal, financial or private without the knowledge or consent of the individual, or an officer, in the case of an organisation.

There may be circumstances where colleagues would want to discuss difficult situations with each other to gain a wider perspective on how to approach a problem. The organisation's consent must be sought before discussing the situation, unless the colleague is convinced beyond doubt that the organisation would not object to this. Alternatively, a discussion may take place with names or identifying information remaining confidential.

Where there is a legal duty on Brixham Future CIC to disclose information, the person to whom the confidentiality is owed will be informed that disclosure has or will be made.

1) Why information is held

Most information held relates to individuals, voluntary and community organisations, self-help groups, volunteers, students, employees, Board or services which support or fund them.

Information is kept to enable us to understand the history and activities of individuals or organisations in order to deliver the most appropriate services.

Brixham Future CIC has a role in putting people in touch with other statutory, voluntary and community organisations and keeps contact details which are passed on to any enquirer, except where the group or organisation expressly requests that the details remain confidential.

Information about students is given to the training organisation and the college, but to no one else. Information about ethnicity and disability of users is kept for the purposes of monitoring our equal opportunities policy and also for reporting back to funders.

2) Access to information

Information is confidential to Brixham Future CIC as an organisation and may be passed to colleagues, line managers or Board to ensure the best quality service is provided.

Where information is sensitive, i.e. it involves disputes or legal issues; it will be confidential to the employee dealing with the case and their line manager. Such information should be clearly labelled 'Confidential' and should state the names of the colleagues entitled to access the information and the name of the individual or group who may request access to the information. Colleagues will not withhold information from their line manager unless it is purely personal.

Persons may have sight of Brixham Future CIC Services records held in their name or that of their organisation. The request must be in writing to the Director giving 14 days' notice and be signed by the individual, or in the case of an organisation's records, by the Chair or Administrative Officer. Sensitive information as outlined above will only be made available to the person or organisation named on the file.

Employees may have sight of their personnel records by giving 14 days' notice in writing to the Administrator. When photocopying or working on confidential documents, colleagues must ensure people passing do not see them. This also applies to information on computer screens.

3) Storing information

General non-confidential information about organisations is kept in unlocked filing cabinets and in computer files with open access to all colleagues.

Personnel information on employees, volunteers, students and other individuals working within Brixham Future CIC will be kept in lockable filing cabinets by line managers and will be accessible to the Administrator /Chair.

Files or filing cabinet drawers bearing confidential information should be labelled 'confidential'. In an emergency situation, the Chair may authorise access to files by other people.

4) Duty to disclose information

There is a legal duty to disclose some information including:

Child abuse will be reported to the Social Services Department.

Drug trafficking, money laundering or acts of terrorism will be disclosed to the police.

In addition a colleague believing an illegal act has taken place, or that a person is at risk of harming themselves or others, must report this to the Chair/Director/Co-ordinator who will report it to the appropriate authorities.

Persons affected by this decision should be informed of this disclosure.

5) Disclosures

We comply fully with the VBS Code of practice regarding the correct handling, use, storage, retention and disposal of Disclosures and Disclosure information.

Disclosure information is always kept separately from an applicant's personnel file in secure storage with access limited to those who are entitled to see it as part of their duties. It is a criminal offence to pass this information to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

Documents will be kept for a year and then destroyed by secure means.

Photocopies will not be kept. However, we may keep a record of the date of issue of a Disclosure, the name of subject, the type of Disclosure requested, the position for which the Disclosure was requested, the unique reference number of the Disclosure and the details of the recruitment decision taken.

6) Data Protection Act

Information about individuals, whether on computer or on paper, falls within the scope of the Data Protection Act and must comply with the data protection principles. These are that personal data must be:

- Obtained and processed fairly and lawfully.
- Held only for specified purposes.
- Adequate, relevant and not excessive.
- Accurate and up to date.
- Not kept longer than necessary.
- Processed in accordance with the Act.
- Kept secure and protected.
- Not transferred out of Europe.

7) Breach of confidentiality

Employees who are dissatisfied with the conduct or actions of other colleagues or volunteers should raise this with their line manager using the grievance procedure, if necessary, and not discuss their dissatisfaction outside the organisation. Colleagues accessing unauthorised files or breaching confidentially may face disciplinary action.

8) Whistle blowing

Where the Finance staff or Volunteers have concerns about the use of our funds, he or she may refer directly to the Chair or Treasurer outside the usual grievance procedure.

All colleagues hold the right to inform either his or her manager or one of the Board if they believe that Brixham Future CIC is being brought into disrepute by the actions of another colleague, Volunteer or Board Members.
